

64. HOW TO IDENTIFY AND CORRECT ERRORS WITH ARTICLES AND NONCOUNT NOUNS

EXERCISE:

1. Follow the instructions in the “Checklist for Identifying and Correcting Errors with Articles and Noncount Nouns.”
2. Identify and correct the errors with articles and noncount nouns in this paragraph.

Proposal to build new library is excellent idea because it will provide a place for all students to study and learn. Currently, many students study in the high school cafeteria. When they try to study, they cannot focus on book they are reading. A library would provide a quiet room where a student could read difficult book and focus on his or her homeworks. Students could also ask for a help from library worker, who could show them where to find informations about subject they are studying that day . The learning requires a good environment, and the libraries are designed to be place to learn.

ANSWER KEY

PRACTICE IDENTIFYING AND CORRECTING ERRORS WITH ARTICLES AND NONCOUNT NOUNS

EXERCISE:

1. Follow the instructions in the “Checklist for Identifying and Correcting Errors with Articles and Noncount Nouns.”
2. Identify and correct the errors with articles and noncount nouns in this paragraph.

The proposal a an [^] ~~Proposal~~ to build [^] new library is [^] excellent idea because it will provide a place for all students to study and learn. Currently, many students study in ~~the~~ high school cafeteria. When they try to study, they cannot focus on [^] book they are reading. A library would provide a quiet room where a student could read ^a difficult book and focus on his or her homework. Students could also ask for ~~a~~ help from ^a library worker, who could show them where to find information.
~~the~~ Learning about [^] subject they are studying that day. ~~The~~ [^] learning requires a good environment, and ~~the~~ libraries are designed to be ^a place to learn.